My Week

Written by Margaret Curtain

A story about a week that has something special about every day.

On Monday I go to basketball training at the YMCA Glenorchy
from seven to eight o'clock.

On Tuesday I go to classes
where I am learning to do sewing and sign language.

The sewing class goes from one to four o'clock.

So far I have made some cushion covers, some pillowcases, a tea-cosy, an apron, a pot holder and a cover for my sewing machine.

The sign language class goes
from six to eight o'clock.

On Wednesday I do adult literacy with my tutor, Jenny.

I am enjoying it a lot so far.

On Thursday I go shopping at Claremont
Village to buy the groceries.

On Friday I watch the football

on television.

My favourite team is St Kilda. Last week they beat Collingwood by one point and I felt great!

On Saturday I go to the races and sometimes I go to Faith and Light.

Faith and Light is a group of people from our church.

We meet at Mt St Canice in Sandy Bay to pray.

On Sunday I go to Mass and then to bowling at Moonah.

I enjoy tenpin bowling and it is good to relax after the game.

25 Stories

Written by learners and published as a resource for others to share
on their learning journeys

During the late 1980s and early 1990s, the Adult Literacy and Basic Education (ALBE) Resources Unit in Devonport, Tasmania, published over 50 stories that had been written by learners as part of their literacy learning program. The writers were closely involved in the production of their stories, with the understanding that the resources would be made available for other learners, teachers and tutors. Since their initial publication there has been continuing interest in the stories, that contain relevant content and appropriate reading levels for adult learners. They are widely used by individuals and organisations across Australia as reading resources and as models for writing.

25 Stories is a selection of those works that have been republished and made available to download, free of charge from the Tasmanian Council for Adult Literacy (TCAL) website, www.tcal.org.au. Each story has been assigned an Australian Core Skills Framework (ACSF) level for reading and writing.

TasTAFE and TCAL wish to thank the original writers, illustrators, learners, teachers and publishers who have generously made these stories available for others to share.
