

2018 TCAL CONFERENCE

TALES FROM THE FRONT LINE

The Tasmanian Council for Adult Literacy

provides adult literacy and numeracy practitioners with resources and professional development opportunities including our annual conference.

We aim to promote awareness of adult literacy and numeracy by facilitating a co-operative and supportive network for practitioners.

Friday 15 June 5.30 for 6-8pm

Hope and Anchor Tavern
65 Macquarie Street, Hobart
$10 entry. Light refreshments provided and cash bar.

Iona Johnson presents 'Tales from the SLAMmer'

plus Hobart Slam Poets performance

Saturday 16 June 10am-3pm

Glenorchy LINC
4 Terry Street, Glenorchy
$25 entry or $15 unwaged and volunteers.
Lunch + refreshments provided

Vanessa Iles:

Tales from the Reading Writing Hotline
Manager Reading Writing Hotline-NSW

Sue-Ellen Evans: Workplace Language Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) in the Aged Care Sector.

Afternoon Hot topic breakout sessions:

- * Digital literacy - built in or bolted on?
- * Literacy in Tasmania - are we working together?
- * Who are our learners - a simple question with no simple answer?
- * Ten years from now - will we be here?